

Pooling our competences

Faasen & Partners is a Dutch law firm with offices in Amsterdam and Rotterdam. The firm is a boutique among the large law firms delivering services at the highest quality standards in the Dutch market. Our firm focuses on business advisory and transaction management. Our talented lawyers have specific competence in various transactions and the project management thereof in the areas of M&A, corporate, finance, European and competition law and employment law. Our familiarity with multi-disciplinary solutions and our experiences in international transactions ensure a comprehensive approach that meets the demands of the global environment in which many of our clients operate. We apply best practices to deliver pragmatic and result-oriented advice. Transactions are a major focus point of our firm. Our focus, service mindedness and the pricing of our services give us a competitive advantage in the Dutch legal services market.

The successful strategy of Faasen & Partners is recognized in the market. Recently we were awarded the price for "Best Starting Law Firm 2002-2004".
